A horizontal row of ten solid black squares of equal size, arranged side-by-side.
