2027 ODI World Cup Host Countries

The upcoming tournament will bring international cricket back to Africa on a major scale. South Africa will host eight venues, Zimbabwe will have three, and Namibia will host matches at one venue.

South African Venues

South Africa's eight selected venues are:

- Wanderers Stadium, Johannesburg
- Centurion, Tshwane
- Newlands Cricket Ground, Cape Town
- Kingsmead Cricket Ground, Durban
- St George's Park, Gqeberha
- Mangaung Oval, Bloemfontein
- Boland Park, Paarl
- Buffalo Park, KuGompo City

These grounds represent several major cricket centres across the country and will provide different settings for World Cup matches.

Zimbabwe and Namibia Venues

Zimbabwe will host matches at Harare Sports Club, Queens Sports Club in Bulawayo, and the newly constructed Mosi-oa-Tunya International Cricket Stadium in Victoria Falls.

Namibia will host matches at the Namibia Cricket Ground in Windhoek. The venue has already hosted international cricket and is part of Namibia's growing cricket infrastructure.

Why Stadiums Matter in ODI Cricket

Venue conditions can be an important part of following an ODI tournament. Pitch characteristics, weather, boundaries, and playing conditions can influence how teams approach different matches.

Following Match Locations

Knowing the location of a match helps fans understand the environment in which teams will compete. The Reddy Anna Book 2027 World Cup topic can therefore include more than teams and fixtures by also looking at the stadiums hosting the competition.
